

Information Community Infrastructure Project (aka. Fishnet 2)

ICI is an NSF funded project focused on improving the accessibility and ease of use of large collections of specimen and observation data held in natural history collections.

A prototype portal is available for viewing at <http://portal.fishnet2.net/>